

Basic Detail Report

Wash Basin

Date

1644-1911

Medium

Glazed ceramic

Description

This object is a blue-and-white ware ceramic basin made during China's Qing dynasty (1644-1911). In a practical sense, this basin would have been used to wash an individual's hands. It is an early example of Qing dynasty porcelain which would likely have been made for trade and export.