Description

Photograph of an unidentified bride and groom, shot in the studio of B.F. Conaway, one of Santa Ana's first commercial photographers. The clothing styles suggest this photo was taken between 1890 and 1910. This photograph was found among the belongings of the donor Mary Jean Fross' late mother after she passed away in Kansas. None of Fross' family could identify the couple at the time the photo was donated in 1989.
