

Basic Detail Report

Vest

Date

c. 1910

Primary Maker

Lakota

Medium

Glass bead, tanned deer leather and cotton cloth

Description

Ethnic Arts: Native North American Indian - Beadwork.
Indian beaded vest - white beaded background, red cloth lining. Pattern is various Indian symbols in colors of green, red, and dark blue. Leather ties are used to close the front. remarks: used by a local Indian in the metropolitan area for Indian fiesta here in recent decades. Left at a friends home one night when the Indian left drunk. Exhibited: "Native North American Indian Beadwork", Irvine Gall.,BOWERS MUSEUM, Santa Ana CA, 11/24/82-8/6/84. "Red Cloud Agency Benefit", Irvine Hilton, Irvine,CA 6/19-6/21-87 (co-sponsored by Ultrasystems & Bowers Museum) Label copy, "Beaded vests are of modern manufacture and are an obvious embellishment of European clothing. The vest is fully beaded and of great weight. A cloth vest would be bought and enhanced with traditional designs such as this. Circa 1910." (P.Apodaca, 6/87) Sioux style after 1982.

Dimensions

20 5/8 × 18 × 3/4 in. (52.4 × 45.7 × 1.9 cm)