

Basic Detail Report

---

J.M. Wyne with Daughter

Date

c. 1918

Medium

Photographic print

Description

This black and white photograph from around 1918 depicts a small girl standing with her father J.M. Wyne in Haliday, Santa Ana. The donor states that during prohibition the people living in the house at that time were making "moonshine". The little girl in the photograph is the donor, Mrs. Charles Snow.

Dimensions

7 x 5 1/8 in. (17.8 x 13 cm)