

Basic Detail Report

Jewelry Box

Date

early to mid 20th Century

Medium

Gold, cord, velvet and mother-of-pearl

Description

White carved mother-of-pearl jewelry box, lined in purple velvet set off with gold cords, a gift of state from Korea to

Wm P. Rogers. Box is decorated by the usage of plain tiles of mother-of-pearl and intricately carved sections of tiles. The design consists of flowers and leaves. Abalone is used on the sides of the box to highlight carved squares.

Dimensions

4 × 10 1/2 × 8 in. (10.2 × 26.7 × 20.3 cm)