Parade of Products Lumber Float

Date

c. 1908

Medium

Photographic print on paper

Description

Photograph postcard depicting a float from Santa Ana's Parade of Products, likely taken around 1908. The float represents Pendleton Lumber Yard and features a banner that reads: Largest Stock in Orange County. This Santa Ana lumber float was a part of the Parade of Products which was first held in conjunction with the Orange County Fair in 1906. The parade was created to display the wealth of products produced in Orange County, a Queen was chosen each year, and prizes were awarded for livestock, produce, and homemade goods. To this day, the OC Fair continues this tradition by featuring a wide array of products for sale by individual vendors in sections of the fairgrounds named Carnival of Products, Parade of Products, and Festival of Products.
