Description

Cooking basket, Yurok, Karok, or Hupa people, Northern California. This basket has been woven in a plain, 2 element S-twined technique with plain, 3 element S-twining at the start followed by twill, 2 element S-twining. The design is a combination of triangles in overlay decoratino in the "it encircles" pattern. A row of wrapped twining is introduced in the body of the basket forming a raised surface about 1.25" from he rim and is found many times in cooking baskets to strengthen them.
