

Katsina of A'hote

Date

c. 1960

Primary Maker

Hopi

Medium

Cottonwood root, pigment and pheasant feathers

Description

This Katsina is distinguished by a long snout with large teeth. Nakwach, a symbol of joining-unit, markings appear on the cheeks. The body is painted yellow and black. The figure wears a white kirtle decorated with cloud, rain, and lightning symbols in black, red and green.

Dimensions

6 3/8 × 3 3/4 × 1 5/8 in. (16.2 × 9.5 × 4.1 cm)