Description

Photograph of Santa Ana taken from a the rooftop of the Hill Building, Main and 2nd Streets, looking Northeast, 1904. Visible is the spire of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, now the Santa Ana United Methodist Church, at the corner of 6th and Spurgeon streets. Farther back, the city water tower can be seen. The building from which this photo was taken was the second location for the First Methodist Episcopal Church and it stood from 1902 until the mid 1960s when it was torn down and replaced with a more modern building on the same site.
