

Shell Trumpet

Date
1200-1500

Medium
Shell

Description
This object is a bisected shell carved to form a skull with eyes, nose, and mouth openings. It is potentially Post

Classic from Veracruz, Mexico. Possibly used as a pendant, unlikely that it was used as an instrument due to the bisection.

Dimensions
3 1/4 × 6 7/8 × 1 1/2 in. (8.3 × 17.5 × 3.8 cm)