

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions

24 x 20 in. (61 x 50.8 cm)

Untitled

Date

c. 1906

Primary Maker

Emil Carlsen

Medium

Oil on canvas on masonite

Description

Landscape done in oil on masonite. American artist Emil Carlsen taught at the San Francisco Art Association in the late 1880s. He is best known for his still life painting, the technique of which he spread to the artists of California. However, Carlsen also painted poetic landscapes and seascapes in pastel but alive colors.