

Basic Detail Report

---

Moccasins

Date

1880-1910

Primary Maker

Lakota

Medium

Tanned deer leather and glass and metal bead

Description

A pair of beaded child's moccasins, North Western Plains Indian culture. C. 1880-1910. Said to have belonged to Eleanor Householder of Noblesville, Indiana. Leather, hide-stitched with blue and red glass beads and bronze faceted beads. For comparison see Sotheby's "Important American Indian Art", New York, Tuesday, May 19, 1998. Entry #694.

Dimensions

3 × 2 3/8 × 5 3/8 in. (7.6 × 6 × 13.7 cm)