

Basic Detail Report

---

Pueblo of the Taos Indians

Date

Series published 1924

Primary Maker

Tewa

Medium

Photographic print on cardboard card

Description

Stereographic card of double sepia toned photographs of two Taos Native American Indians standing in front of a stone wall and behind a body of water in Taos, New Mexico. Pueblos can be seen in the background. Caption below proper left image reads: "13720 Pueblo of the Taos Indians, Taos, N. Mexico." "T139" is between the images and refers to the card's position in a set. This card was manufactured, published and copyrighted by Keystone View Company, Meadville, Pa., New York, N.Y., Chicago, Ill., and London, England. Detailed description on back of card: "211-(13720) Pueblo of Taos Indians The Pueblo Indians of the Southwest were very different from those farther east and north. They were partly civilized and knew how to weave baskets and to make pottery..."

Dimensions

3 3/8 × 7 × 1/2 in. (8.6 × 17.8 × 1.3 cm)