

Pestle

Date

20th Century

Medium

Stone and pigment

Description

A pestle collected from Cape Gloucester in the West New Britain Province of Papua New Guinea. A pestle, often in paired with a mortar, is a type of object common to the entire world due to their efficiency at pulverizing foods, pigments, and more.

Dimensions

7 1/2 × 3 7/8 × 3 1/4 in. (19.1 × 9.8 × 8.3 cm)