

Antler Carving

Date
date unknown

Primary Maker
Inuit

Medium
Caribou antler

Description

Caribou antler contoured into a carving of an animal. On top most stem is a face, possibly of a bear or anthropomorphic figure is carved. On the outer portion of the top stem a figure of a fish or eel is carved attacking a deer or caribou. Along the inner portion of the lower, final stem are figures of a whale and two seals.

Dimensions

28 × 13 × 5 3/4 in. (71.1 × 33 × 14.6 cm)