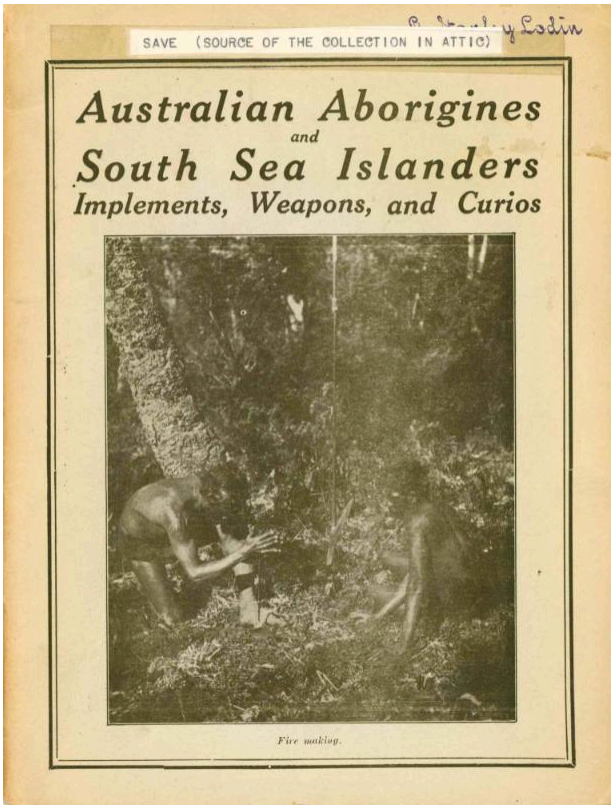
Basic Detail Report



Australian Aborigines and South Sea Islanders: Implements, Weapons, and Curios

Date
1929

Primary Maker
Tyrrell's Museum

Medium
Paper and ink

Description
This book serves both as a catalog and advertisement for Tyrrell’s Museum. Located in Sydney, Australia, the museum was part of James R. Tyrrell’s larger bookselling and art dealing enterprise. The catalog contains information about the museum’s Oceanic collections which were for sale. Also included in the catalog are several black and white plates featuring photos of native peoples, animals, artifacts and scenes.

Dimensions
9 1/2 × 7 1/4 × 1/4 in. (24.1 × 18.4 × 0.6 cm)